

General Atlantic Affiliated Companies

Published: October 27, 2025

Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. (“ISS”) is partially owned by General Atlantic (“GA”), a private equity firm based in New York, NY. As a private equity firm, GA owns or controls a number of operating companies. Some of these companies may be publicly traded and may be held in ISS client portfolios. Actual or potential conflicts of interest, or the appearance of conflicts, could arise in the production by ISS of research with respect to these companies.

ISS and GA have adopted policies to identify these situations and mitigate actual or potential conflicts. A copy of the “Policy on Non-Interference and Potential Conflicts of Interest Related to General Atlantic” is available on the ISS website at:

<https://www.iss-stoxx.com/about/compliance/>

Pursuant to the above referenced policy, each issuer identified is deemed to be a "GA Affiliated Company" by virtue of one of the types of relationships described in the policy. If ISS publishes research with respect to such an issuer, an explicit statement noting the relationship will be included in the body of any such research. In addition, ISS will maintain and make publicly available within the Compliance section of its website a list of all GA Affiliated Companies.

Below is a list of GA Affiliated Companies. GA will use reasonable efforts to facilitate ISS’ implementation of GA Affiliated Companies by providing ISS with a list of such companies upon ISS’ request. In the event a change is warranted, this list will be updated.
